

• CAREER COUNSELLING

Deciding on a career path can be a daunting task. But don't panic! If you're at a CROSSROADS in your life, career or education, there's help on the Peninsula and it may be as close as your living room.

Jane Keresztes is a former teacher who thrives on helping others achieve their goals and fulfill their dreams through career exploration.

After 5 years in Employment Services as a Career Development Practitioner, last fall she created Crossroads Career Counselling, a successful home based business that assists clients to explore options and navigate the necessary steps in their education and career development.

"If you have ever wondered what your career options are in this fast paced, constantly changing labour market, you've come to the right place," says Jane.

She sees her role as coach and confidante to a growing client base, primarily high school students needing direction on the path of life, but also to a growing number of adults seeking a career change or a return to the workplace.

Having lived in this community for 25 years, Jane is well connected and networks to find "job shadow" opportunities for her clients' dreams to become a reality.

After several one-to-one sessions, a retired flight attendant realized her potential by finding employment in her industry as an instructor at a Flight

Jane Keresztes

Attendant Training Institution. Another client who had volunteered for years at her kids' school discovered she could use her skill set, training and experience to fundraise in a successful new career.

For secondary students, she compliments the voice of a parent, nudging students to buckle down, get the best grades possible and enrol in the appropriate courses in grades 11 and 12 to keep their options open. Following two personality assessments, Jane presents a variety of career choices and the path to achieve this objective.

When you're ready to move forward in your education or career, visit www.crossroadssurrey.com or email Jane Keresztes at jane@crossroadssurrey.com.

CROSSROADS
Career & Education Counselling

604.817.5737

jane@crossroadssurrey.com

